who can apply

This small grant program is available to all Neighbourhood and Community Houses and Centres across Australia that are in towns or cities with a population of more than 15,000 people.

Small grants for applicants in rural and regional Australia are available through the Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal's (FRRR) Strengthening Rural Communities program. This program prioritises applications from communities with fewer than 15,000 people

Only one submission will be considered per Neighbourhood or Community House or Centre in each round.

In the case of organisations that manage multiple Centres, one application will be accepted from each separate House or Centre. Please note, to ensure that the funding is spread throughout the sector around Australia, applicants will only be able to receive funding once every 2 years.

who can't apply

- Community organisations that are not working in partnership with a Neighbourhood or Community Houses or Centre.
- Neighbourhood and Community Houses and Centres who have received a grant from the SSC grant program in the last 2 years.
- Neighbourhood and Community Houses and Centres who have not completed their acquittal for previous SSC grants.

eligibility of projects

Projects that are developed in response to emerging community needs promoting equality and inclusion can apply for funding through this grant program.

Existing programs can also apply for funding to adapt or expand their program providing it is clearly explained how the adaptations are required to meet emerging changing needs in the community.

You can apply for funding to cover costs associated with delivering projects which can include (and is not limited to):

- Wages for the staff required to deliver the project
- Equipment hire or purchase costs
- Hall hire costs for off site facilities
- Community training costs

If you are unsure whether something will be eligible for funding please call: Jarrah Kelly on 0428 964 817 or email jarrah@anhca.org.

Please note – If your application is for a project or program that will involve working with children and young people, you will need to make a declaration that you are compliant with National Child Safety Standards. Information about the different checks required in each state can be found at: acic.gov.au/our-services/national-police-checking-service/find-out-more-information/working-children-checks

what can't be funded

- Projects that take place in towns or cities with less than 15,000 people.
- Existing programs or programs that start before the funding is allocated
- Ongoing core operational costs (e.g. rent, regular wages, utilities)
- Programs that don't clearly outline how they will promote equality and inclusion.

Please note – While funding will not be given to existing programs, if you have demonstrated success with your program and wish to further develop or extend your program to meet the changing needs of the community, this could be considered eligible.

If you are unsure if you meet the eligibility criteria, please call Jarrah Kelly on 0428 964 817 or email jarrah@anhca.org.

guidelines for partnership arrangements

Neighbourhood or Community House or Centre can apply for this grant in partnership with other local Community groups.

ELIGIBILITY

If a Neighbourhood or Community House or Centre would like to apply with another community organisation, there are several basic criteria that will need to be met within the Partnership Arrangements.

- The Neighbourhood or Community House or Centre will take the lead role. This will involve being the main contact for the project/program. They will also take on the financial and legal responsibility for the duration of the project/program.
- There will need to be evidence provided in the application form outlining the partnership arrangements. This will include clearly defining the roles of both partners and their contribution.
- There will need to be a letter of support provided by the community organisation outlining their commitment to the project/program.

If you are unsure whether your partnership arrangement will be eligible, contact Jarrah at 0428 964 817 or jarrah@anhca.org

assessment process

Once the applications are received, they will be checked for eligibility and all eligible applications will be referred to an Evaluation panel for assessment. This panel will consist of representatives of the state peak bodies and the Sidney Myer Fund.

Once the grant round closes, there will be approximately 1 week for internal assessments and then 4 weeks for the panel to meet, evaluate the applications and finalise the allocations. This timeline will be dependent on the number of applications received.

Applicants will be notified of outcome of their grant applications once the panel have concluded with their assessments.

If successful, applicants will receive a funding agreement to be signed and returned to receive payment. Unsuccessful applicants will be notified via email as soon as possible following the assessment process.

reporting requirements

A progress summary report will need to be completed online via our website PROGRESS REPORT

A final acquittal report will be required at the conclusion of the project outlining outcomes achieved and a statement of expenditure outlining how the grant money was allocated. This will need to be completed online via our website ACQUITTAL

program criteria

Applications will be scored and ranked by the assessment panel based on the overall assessment against the following program criteria:

- Understanding the emerging needs of the local community
- Capacity to deliver the program
- Benefit to local community

application preparing

Before applying for funding, it is helpful to plan your proposed project/program by ensuring that –

- You are eligible for funding as a Neighbourhood or Community House or Centre in Australia based in a town or city of more than 15,000 people or a community organisation partnered to one;
- Your project/program and its components are eligible;
- You have identified and can show the need for the project/program;
- You can clearly outline the outcomes of your project/program;
- You have gathered all necessary documentation
